The 19th Annual Third Party Payer Days

Fort Wayne, Indiana – IMGMA is proud to announce the upcoming 19th Annual Third Party Payer Days sponsored by Medical Group Management Association of Indiana and the Indiana Chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

This year's event will consist of two sessions of instruction and information, spotlighting the opening lecture "Medicare Advantage and News from Washington" presented by Leah Cohen, Government Affairs Representative for MGMA Government Affairs office in Washington, D.C.

In addition to meeting and talking with Provider Relations Representatives, who will be available to answer insurance related questions, there will be a special lecture series by Sagamore and Cigna representatives who will be on hand conducting open sessions concerning the recent changes at Sagamore Health Network.

There will be two different dates and locations to take part in this year's annual 3 P.P.D. The first event will be held Friday, November 2, 2007 at the Hilton North Hotel in Indianapolis, Indiana beginning with registration and breakfast from 7:30-8:00 a.m. The second and final chance to catch the informational session will be held Thursday, November 8, 2007 in Marriott Hotel of Fort Wayne, Indiana.
